Dear Lord,

John P. Mackintosh Memorial Committee

You wrote to me about the above, a few weeks ago. Please excuse the delay in replying.

I have now emerged from a ridiculously busy few weeks and am catching up on mail.

I have had a preliminary search for my lecture notes - but so far without success. I may have better luck at the weekend when I can be a bit more systematic.

If anything emerges, I will be in touch.

Warm good wishes.

John Sutherland
